15 INITIAL INCIDENT DESCRIPTION / NARRATIVE:
{On 10/9/14 at 1446 hrs I was working uniformed patrol in the city of Seattle as 2W11. I was dispatched to a shooting at 2115 Belvidere Av SW. A male called 911 to report a shooting outside of his home.

The male, later identified as Daren w. Atwood 7/7/84, reported that someone was trying to get him. Atwood told the call taker that he only had one clip left for his handgun. Atwood was very agitated and screaming into the telephone. He refused to answer further questions from the call taker. While enroute to the scene, dispatch advised that the call taker heard more gun shots. A female got on the line with dispatch and confirmed that Atwood was shooting at someone that she could not see. The female, later identified at Lindsey Holweger 7/2/89, told the call taker that Atwood was bleeding from the head but she did not believe that he was shot.

I arrived on scene along with Sgt. Britt. I did not hear any further shots, but I could hear yelling from the area in front of the home. More units arrived and we secured the area down the driveway from 2115 Belvidere Av SW and waited for SWAT. SWAT arrived and slowly cleared the scene, looking for suspects along the way.

SWAT checked all three houses and the surrounding hillside, and they were able to locate Atwood and Holweger near a truck parked in the curve of the driveway. SWAT officers secured Atwood and Holweger and escorted them down to where I was stationed at the command post.

Atwood was crying and yelling. He had several scratches to his forehead and was bleeding from the wounds. I asked Atwood what happened, and he started yelling and crying again. I was able to calm him down enough for him to explain to me that he saw three men dressed all in black with masks over there faces, and they told him they were there to kill him. Atwood alternated between calm and agitated while speaking with me. I smelled the strong odor of alcohol coming from Atwood. He told me that he had drank a few shots of rum over lunch earlier today. It should also be noted that while searching Atwood for weapons, officers found 12.9 grams of marijuana and a pipe for smoking marijuana on Atwood's person.

Atwood was very agitated, but he was able to sit still for medical personnel from Seattle Fire engine #29 to treat his wounds. Medical personnel stated that Atwood had several scratches to his forehead. They cleaned the scratches for Atwood and stopped the bleeding.

Atwood was still very agitated and was crying and yelling. He told me that someone had damaged his vehicle three nights prior (10/6/14) and he was afraid that whomever damaged his vehicle would come back and hurt him. He started breaking down and was unable to tell me anything further about the shooting.

Once SWAT had cleared the scene of potential threats, I responded to the shooting scene with Ofc. Mazzioti and Holweger. Holweger was able to walk us through the scene and advise of what she was able to see during the incident.

Holweger told me that she was visiting Atwood at his home. She is a longtime friend of Atwood's. Holweger stated that when she was ready to leave, Atwood decided to walk her down the very long access road to where her vehicle was parked. Atwood had a .45 caliber handgun and two clips on his belt, and he insisted that Holweger carry his shotgun. Holweger stated that she did not want to carry the shotgun but Atwood insisted.

Holweger stated that about halfway to her vehicle she and Atwood heard a noise that sounded like footsteps further up the road around the curve. The noise came from an area that Holweger could not see. Atwood told her to stay put and he moved up to the curve in the road where the noise came from. Holweger stated that she did not hear any further footsteps at that time. When Atwood arrived at the curve he started yelling and shooting downhill. Holweger ducked down behind another vehicle parked alongside the road and hid. She did not see anyone but Atwood.

Holweger stated that she was not sure how many shots Atwood fired, but that it was less than twenty. She risked a look at Atwood and he wobbled on his feet and fell to the ground as if he had passed out. She called police at that time and reported the shots to the call taker. Atwood appeared to wake up and started yelling downhill again. Holweger made it over to where Atwood was stationed and checked on him. She stated that he had blood coming from a small abrasion but did not appear to be shot.

Holweger stated that while she was on the phone with the call taker Atwood returned to Holweger's original hiding place behind the vehicle. He continued to cry and yell from behind the vehicle. Holweger stated that at one point Atwood was on the ground on his hands and knees behind the vehicle. She stated that about that time SWAT arrived and secured the scene.

I spoke with Sgt. Hancock and several other SWAT officers at the scene and they pointed out several bullet holes in vehicles parked downhill from where Atwood had stationed himself while shooting. It should be noted that the vehicles and long road up to Atwood's home overlook several neighboring homes, and those homes were in the line of fire. Sgt. Hancock also pointed out a small pick-like tool on the ground where Atwood was hiding that was consistent with several scratch marks over the original abrasion to Atwood's forehead. Atwood stated that the men he saw had held him down and scratched up his face prior to police arriving on scene, but that was not consistent with Holweger's statements.

Sgt. Britt and I then responded to the house and we were able to speak with his father Donald Atwood. Donald showed us where Atwood kept his weapons. Sgt. Britt confiscated a rifle, shotgun, and a handgun. It should be noted that the rifle had a hundred round capacity magazine. All of the confiscated weapons were transferred to the custody of Ofc. Mckenzie who placed them into evidence.

The weapons were inside Atwood's bedroom. While I was inside the bedroom I observed a pill bottle that was under Atwood's name filled partially with a drug called [redacted]. [redacted] is an [redacted]. The pill bottle is clearly marked to avoid alcohol. Donald stated that Atwood takes his medications daily, and that he may have already taken it today prior to drinking alcohol.

Atwood was taken to Harborview medical center for a involuntary mental evaluation. Holweger was released from the scene. Sgt. Britt screened this incident.

10-13-2014. Sgt Fountain assigned this case to me for follow up and directed me to put a police hold on Atwood.

1600 hrs. I contacted Anne Mizuta in the King County Prosecutors Civil Commitment Court. I advised her that we would be arresting Atwood if he was not kept in the hospital for psychiatric treatment.

10-14-2014. 1037 Hrs. Telephone contact with Mizuta. She told me that the hospital declined to file a petition for a More Restrictive Order, Atwood's 72 hold was expiring, and he was going to be released by 2000 Hrs tonight.

1630 hrs. Officer Woollum and I responded to Harborview Medical Center (HMC), floor 5WB. At my request, HMC security officers met us there, entered the ward, and brought Atwood out to us. I placed Atwood into handcuffs. Because Atwood was large and had broad shoulders, I used two pairs of handcuffs to avoid putting pressure on his shoulders. I gauged and double locked the handcuffs and then advised Atwood of his Miranda rights. When I asked him if he understood his rights he said yes We escorted him out to the patrol car. As we walked out to the car I asked him if he had been diagnosed with any mental illness, and he said no, that he had a clean bill of health,and that is why they were releasing him from the hospital. When I asked him if the behavior at the incident was caused by drugs or alcohol, he said he would talk about that with his lawyer. At no time did he request to speak with a lawyer, but I did not ask him any more questions. Officer Woollum and I transported Atwood to the King county Jail. Sgt Fountain met us at the jail and screened the arrest in person. Atwood was subsequently booked into the jail.

On 10/9/14 I responded to a call of shots fired at 2115 Belvidere. I arrived along with SWAT and responding officers. After the scene was placed under control, I walked the scene with Officer Mazziotti, two SWAT officers, and Holweger.

As I walked the scene I checked for shell casings and bullet holes in the surrounding area. I located several bullet holes going down the hill from Atwood's position, but I did not locate any bullet holes aimed uphill at Atwood. I also located the weapons and shell casings from Atwood's position at the top of the hill, but I did not locate any other weapons or shell casings downhill from Atwood's position at the top of the hill.

10-09-14 I was working as a Seattle Police Officer as part of the SWAT Team. I was assigned as part of a dignitary protection detail, and was in a Seattle Police Department vehicle located at the King County Airport. I was wearing a black SWAT uniform, with white police markings.
At approximately 1440 hrs we were ordered to leave our detail, and respond to a shots fired call located at 2115 Belvidere Av. S.W. in the City of Seattle, County of King. The comments on the call stated that shots had been fired, and a male was down with a firearm lying next to him.
We responded to the scene, and I observed that the address in question was at the top of a long winding public road. I was using my Seattle Police Department scoped rifle to cover on the unknown threat of the road. Comments on the radio stated the male had gotten up, and was walking around. Other Officers on the scene reported that they could hear someone yelling for help.
Eventually the decision was made to use our armored vehicles to move up Belvidere Av S.E. I rode in the back of one of the armored vehicles. As the vehicle arrived at a bend in the road, other Officers made contact with a female that was involved in the incident. It was here that I noticed several firearms, and magazines of ammunition strewn about the road.
At this time I opened the hatch of the armored vehicle, and covered the threat of the continued road with my scoped rifle. I observed a male approach with his hands up. Another Officer was giving the male verbal commands, and he was complying. The male was then taken into custody. END OF STATEMENT.

I hereby declare (certify) under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that this report is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief (RCW 9A.72.085)

On 10-09-14 at about 1500 hours I was working as a member of the Seattle Police SWAT Team. I was assigned to the Vice Presidential protection detail at Boeing Field. I was working with Sgt. Hancock.

We received information of a shooting incident with at least one outstanding suspect in the area of 2115 Belvidere Ave SW. Sgt. Hancock and I responded to the scene.

We arrived as SWAT officers on scene were coming up with a plan to move up the long roadway and search for the alleged gunman. A group of approximately six officers left in an armored SWAT vehicle and proceeded up the road. Shortly after leaving, King County officers in a helicopter, Guardian 1, located the suspect lying in the roadway on Belvidere Ave SW. Officers were able to call the suspect back to their armored vehicle and arrest him without incident.

Officers Nelson, Giroux, Novak, and I proceeded up to their location in a second armored vehicle. Upon arriving at the bend in the driveway, I immediately saw an unknown make/model pick-up truck parked directly to the N/E of my location. There was a black semi-automatic pistol lying on the ground and a pump shotgun leaning against the truck. The truck had what appeared to be several gunshot holes to the windshield and the passenger's side front right quarter panel or hood. It appeared that the shots had been fired into the pick-up from the west based upon where the impacts on the truck were located.

W/Holweger was brought to my location as I stood behind the armored vehicle for cover. I asked her to explain to me what had happened. Holweger said that she and Atwood were walking down the driveway (on Belvidere towards Fairmount). Holweger said that Atwood was tense and on edge due to ongoing problems with some other unidentified people. Based upon that fact, Atwood had given Holweger the pump shotgun for protection and he was armed with a semi-automatic pistol. Holweger said that they heard a noise from around the bend and to the south on Belvidere. Holwger stood in the roadway in front of a parked utility vehicle and Atwood walked around the bend to investigate. Holweger said that Atwood began yelling at someone to stop or he would shoot them. Atwood then opened fire with his handgun and fired multiple rounds down the driveway (S/B on Belvidere). Holweger hid behind the utility vehicle. She looked up and witnessed Atwood fall to the ground. She believed that he had been shot, but did not see any injuries to him. Atwood stayed on the ground for several minutes while Holweger called 911 to report the incident. After a few minutes, Atwood stood up and walked away and Holweger lost sight of him.

Holweger said the suspected bullet holes in the truck, which was identified as belonging to Atwood, was damage caused by Atwood himself at least one day prior to this incident.

Officers showed up on scene and located Atwood lying in the road in front of the utility vehicle.

We searched the houses at the N/W end of Belvidere (including Atwood's home) to ensure no victims were inside. We then walked S/B on Belvidere Ave SW to look for victims or property damage. I saw at least two vehicles parked on the east side of Belvidere Ave SW with gunshot holes in them. The holes were consistent with rounds fired from Atwood's location near the bend in the roadway. I also saw what appeared to be a fresh bullet hole in a wooden utility pole on the west side of Belvidere Ave SW. I did not see any shell casings on Belvidere Ave SW or any property damage that would indicate that a person or persons was firing rounds at Atwood. EOS.

15 INITIAL INCIDENT DESCRIPTION / NARRATIVE:
{On 10/9/14 at 1446 hrs I was working uniformed patrol in the city of Seattle as 2W11. I was dispatched to a shooting at 21[redacted] Belvidere Av SW. A male called 911 to report a shooting outside of his home.

The male, later identified as Daren w. Atwood 7/7/[redacted], reported that someone was trying to get him. Atwood told the call taker that he only had one clip left for his handgun. Atwood was very agitated and screaming into the telephone. He refused to answer further questions from the call taker. While enroute to the scene, dispatch advised that the call taker heard more gun shots. A female got on the line with dispatch and confirmed that Atwood was shooting at someone that she could not see. The female, later identified at [redacted] told the call taker that Atwood was bleeding from the head but she did not believe that he was shot.

I arrived on scene along with Sgt. Britt. I did not hear any further shots, but I could hear yelling from the area in front of the home. More units arrived and we secured the area down the driveway from 21[redacted] Belvidere Av SW and waited for SWAT. SWAT arrived and slowly cleared the scene, looking for suspects along the way.

SWAT checked all three houses and the surrounding hillside, and they were able to locate Atwood and [redacted] near a truck parked in the curve of the driveway. SWAT officers secured Atwood and [redacted] and escorted them down to where I was stationed at the command post.

Atwood was crying and yelling. He had several scratches to his forehead and was bleeding from the wounds. I asked Atwood what happened, and he started yelling and crying again. I was able to calm him down enough for him to explain to me that he saw three men dressed all in black with masks over there faces, and they told him they were there to kill him. Atwood alternated between calm and agitated while speaking with me. I smelled the strong odor of alcohol coming from Atwood. He told me that he had drank a few shots of rum over lunch earlier today. It should also be noted that while searching Atwood for weapons, officers found 12.9 grams of marijuana and a pipe for smoking marijuana on Atwood's person.

Atwood was very agitated, but he was able to sit still for medical personnel from Seattle Fire engine #29 to treat his wounds. Medical personnel stated that Atwood had several scratches to his forehead. They cleaned the scratches for Atwood and stopped the bleeding.

Atwood was still very agitated and was crying and yelling. He told me that someone had damaged his vehicle three nights prior (10/6/14) and he was afraid that whomever damaged his vehicle would come back and hurt him. He started breaking down and was unable to tell me anything further about the shooting.

Once SWAT had cleared the scene of potential threats, I responded to the shooting scene with Ofc. Mazzioti and [redacted]. [redacted] was able to walk us through the scene and advise of what she was able to see during the incident.

[redacted] told me that she was visiting Atwood at his home. She is a longtime friend of Atwood's. [redacted] stated that when she was ready to leave, Atwood decided to walk her down the very long access road to where her vehicle was parked. Atwood had a .45 caliber handgun and two clips on his belt, and he insisted that [redacted] carry his shotgun. [redacted] stated that she did not want to carry the shotgun but Atwood insisted.

[redacted] stated that about halfway to her vehicle she and Atwood heard a noise that sounded like footsteps further up the road around the curve. The noise came from an area that [redacted] could not see. Atwood told her to stay put and he moved up to the curve in the road where the noise came from. [redacted] stated that she did not hear any further footsteps at that time. When Atwood arrived at the curve he started yelling and shooting downhill. [redacted] ducked down behind another vehicle parked alongside the road and hid. She did not see anyone but Atwood.

[redacted] stated that she was not sure how many shots Atwood fired, but that it was less than twenty. She risked a look at Atwood and he wobbled on his feet and fell to the ground as if he had passed out. She called police at that time and reported the shots to the call taker. Atwood appeared to wake up and started yelling downhill again. [redacted] made it over to where Atwood was stationed and checked on him. She stated that he had blood coming from a small abrasion but did not appear to be shot.

[redacted] stated that while she was on the phone with the call taker Atwood returned to [redacted] original hiding place behind the vehicle. He continued to cry and yell from behind the vehicle. [redacted] stated that at one point Atwood was on the ground on his hands and knees behind the vehicle. She stated that about that time SWAT arrived and secured the scene.

I spoke with Sgt. Hancock and several other SWAT officers at the scene and they pointed out several bullet holes in vehicles parked downhill from where Atwood had stationed himself while shooting. It should be noted that the vehicles and long road up to Atwood's home overlook several neighboring homes, and those homes were in the line of fire. Sgt. Hancock also pointed out a small pick-like tool on the ground where Atwood was hiding that was consistent with several scratch marks over the original abrasion to Atwood's forehead. Atwood stated that the men he saw had held him down and scratched up his face prior to police arriving on scene, but that was not consistent with [redacted] statements.

Sgt. Britt and I then responded to the house and we were able to speak with [redacted] showed us where Atwood kept his weapons. Sgt. Britt confiscated a rifle, shotgun, and a handgun. It should be noted that the rifle had a hundred round capacity magazine. All of the confiscated weapons were transferred to the custody of Ofc. Mckenzie who placed them into evidence.

The weapons were inside Atwood's bedroom. While I was inside the bedroom I observed a pill bottle that was under Atwood's name filled partially with a drug called Citalopram. Citalopram is an anti-depressant. The pill bottle is clearly marked to avoid alcohol. [redacted] stated that Atwood takes his medications daily, and that he may have already taken it today prior to drinking alcohol.

Atwood was taken to Harborview medical center for a involuntary mental evaluation. [redacted] was released from the scene. Sgt. Britt screened this incident.

Continued:

Officers secured several weapons from Atwood's residence. A rifle fitted with a 100-round capacity magazine, a shotgun, and a .45 caliber handgun were confiscated and placed into evidence. Atwood fired over twenty shots downhill from his driveway, striking several parked vehicles and telephone poles along the way. He fired those shots in the direction of homes occupied with innocent bystanders, and also in the direction traveled by responding officers.

Atwood suffered delusions that men were trying to invade his property and kill him which started his aggressive shooting in the direction where he imagined the men were waiting. Atwood also cut his forehead with a sharp tool, leaving several small cuts. He claimed the men cut his forehead up. The witness to the shooting stated that she did not see or hear these men that Atwood claimed were there to harm him.

From past interactions with Atwood, it is apparent that he fears that he will be attacked somehow and therefore he is always armed with a pistol. A bystander stated that Atwood has shot his gun into the woods on more than one occasion.
